The Lotus Children's Centre

- Founded in 1995 by Didi Ananda Kalika
- Home for around 65 vulnerable and abused Mongolian children
- Centre for development for abandoned and vulnerable children

www.lotuschild.org

The main aims of Lotus are:

- To provide primary care to all of the children at the Centre, including food, healthcare, clothing and suitable accommodation
- To provide development care so the children can break free of the poverty cycle. As such, we aim to give each child a quality education, , tools for building self-esteem and the opportunity to improve life skills
- To give every child love and attention, and the support of a family group
- Children are not forgotten after they leave Lotus and support is provided for the children's 'post-Lotus' lives so that they have a safety net, and are able to find employment, and tertiary education placements. Once you join the Lotus family, help is always there.
